(U) Los Angeles – LAPD Investigation Finds No Threat After Social Media Scare of Mass Shooting

(U) A threat of a mass shooting in downtown Los Angeles that was supposedly planned for Thursday and went viral on social media was determined not credible and no arrests have been made, authorities said. With the Summit of the Americas taking place in LA this week, federal and local law enforcement officials were already on a heightened alert, with an incident command post established downtown. President Biden is in town to participate in the summit, which includes political leaders from throughout the Western Hemisphere. Authorities began investigating Tuesday as reports of a mass shooting planned for Thursday began to spread across social media. According to law enforcement sources, the Los Angeles Police Department ultimately traced the rumors to a person with mental health issues.

(U) Mexico – Mexican Authorities Discover Drug Tunnel Running from Tijuana to San Diego, CA

(U) Tijuana – Authorities in Mexico discovered a drug tunnel running under the border from Tijuana to the United States, media reported yesterday. Mexican authorities say the tunnel ran from a home in Tijuana underneath the border to a home in San Diego. The tunnel is approximately 793 feet long and is equipped with rails, lighting, and a ventilation system. Authorities say investigators traveled about 80 feet into the tunnel and learned it had collapsed. Multiple agencies worked together to secure the home in Tijuana and the connecting one in the United States. It is the second tunnel uncovered in the same area in less than a month.

(U) Wisconsin – Man Sentenced for Arson During 2020 Kenosha Riot

(U) Kenosha – A man will serve 3½ years in prison for starting a fire that destroyed a family-run furniture store in Kenosha during unrest the day after Jacob Blake was shot. Devon Vaughn, 23, of Racine, pleaded guilty in March to conspiring to commit arson. Several buildings were set ablaze during rioting in 2020 that erupted in Kenosha following the police shooting of Blake. Federal and local investigators were not able to file charges immediately but later released surveillance photos of suspects and offered rewards for information about the fires. Vaughn also will be subject to two years of supervised release and have to pay more than $1.7 million in restitution after he serves his prison time.

(U) Burkina Faso – Eleven Military Policemen Killed

(U) Seytenga – Eleven military policemen have been killed in northern Burkina Faso after their post was attacked by armed men, the army has said. The West African country is battling armed groups, some linked to al-Qa'ida and ISIL (ISIS), that are waging a violent rebellion that has killed thousands across Burkina Faso and neighboring Mali and Niger. The attack took place yesterday evening at a security post in Seytenga, in the province of Seno, the army statement said. The gendarmes fought back but were outnumbered. Four military police were also killed yesterday in an attack in the western province of Kossi and two people were killed in another incident at a gold mine in the north, the army said.
